

Come Together

Here come old flattop he come grooving up slowly
He got joo-joo eyeball he one holy roller
He got hair down to his knee
Got to be a joker he just do what he please

He wear no shoeshine he got toe-jam football
He got monkey finger he shoot coca-cola
He say "I know you, you know me"
One thing I can tell you is you got to be free
Come together right now over me

He bag production he got walrus gumboot
He got Ono sideboard he one spinal cracker
He got feet down below his knee
Hold you in his arms ya you can feel his disease
Come together right now over me

He roller-coaster he got early warning
He got muddy water he one mojo filter
He say "One and one and one is three"
Got to be good-looking 'cause he's so hard to see
Come together right now over me

Paul McCartney still lives not far away from the Abbey Road studios. We drove in our bus through Little Venice. Here Paul and Linda McCartney enjoyed to go for a walk and sometimes they even stopped to drink a cup of café.

Little Venice & Regent's Canal

Little Venice, about a square mile within London's Maida Vale district, is one of the more exclusive residential districts in central London. When the Grand Union Canal was opened in 1820, the area was home to artists, writers and prostitutes. Today, Little Venice is a bit more genteel. The area is comprised of about ten tree-lined streets with beautiful 17th century white stucco homes plus shops on Formosa Street and Clifton Gardens. Easy access to Oxford Street, the West End, Paddington Station and even Heathrow make this oasis on near London's canals a much coveted, fashionable and expensive address.

London's canals were once major traffic movers. At the intersection of the Regent's Canal and the Grand Union Canal sits the Little Venice Landing stage. You can hop a boat here, or just take a walk along the Regent's canal, where decorated barges are moored.

This is Paul McCartney's house.

As we took this picture he opened the door for some visitors.

Sir James Paul McCartney (born 18 June 1942) is an iconic Grammy Award-winning English singer, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist who first gained worldwide fame as one of the founding members of The Beatles. McCartney and John Lennon formed 'one of the most influential' and successful songwriting partnerships and wrote some of the most popular music in rock music history. Following his departure, McCartney launched a successful solo career and formed the band Wings with his wife, Linda McCartney. McCartney has also worked on film scores, classical music, and ambient/electronic music. He has released a large catalogue of songs as a solo artist, and has taken part in projects to assist international charities.

McCartney is listed in Guinness World Records as the most successful musician and composer in popular music history, with 60 gold discs and sales of 100 million singles.

Yesterday

Paul MC Cartney

Yesterday, all my troubles seemed so far away.

Now it looks as though they're here to stay.

Oh, I believe in yesterday.

Suddenly, There's a shadow hanging over me,

I'm not half the man i used to be,

Oh, yesterday came suddenly.

Why she had to go

I don't know she wouldn't say.

I said something wrong,

Now I long for yesterday.

Yesterday, love was such an easy game to play.

Now I need a place to hide away.

Oh, I believe in yesterday.

Why she had to go

I don't know she wouldn't say.

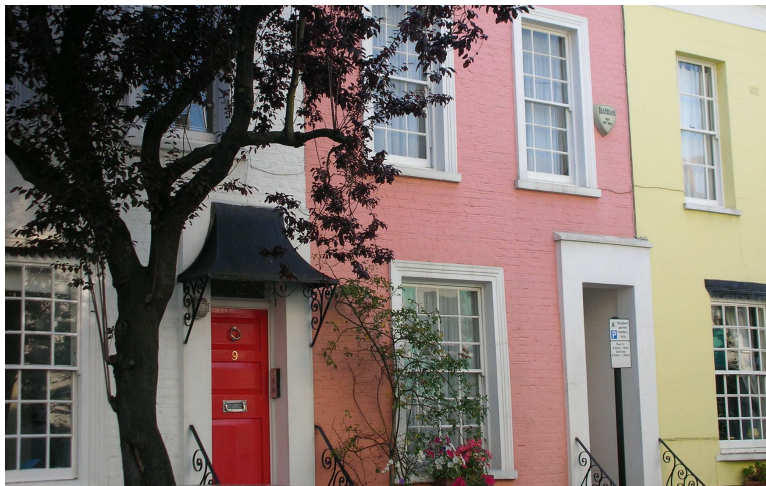

I said something wrong,

Now I long for yesterday.

Yesterday, love was such an easy game to play.

Now I need a place to hide away. Oh, I believe in yesterday.

Elton John, who is called “the second queen of England”, has houses all over London. We went to see two of them:

We saw a line of houses in Middlesex and in Notting Hill

Sir Elton John (born in Pinner Middlesex on 25 March 1947) is a five-time Grammy and one-time Academy Award-winning English pop/rock singer, composer and pianist. In his four-decade career, John has been one of the dominant forces in rock and popular music, especially in the 1970s. John has sold more than 250 million albums plus hundreds of millions of singles, making him one of the most successful artists of all time.

Goodbye England's Rose

by Elton John

Goodbye England's rose
May you ever grow in our hearts
You were the grace that placed itself
Where lives were torn apart

You called out to our country
And you whispered to those in pain
Now you belong to heaven
And the stars spell out your name

Refrain

And it seems to me you lived your life
Like a candle in the wind
Never fading with the sunset when the rain set in
And your footsteps will always fall here
Along England's greenest hills
Your candle's burned out long before
Your legend ever will

Loveliness we've lost
These empty days without your smile
This torch we'll always carry
For our nation's golden child

And even though we try
The truth brings us to tears
All our words cannot express
The joy you brought us through the years

Goodbye England's rose
May you ever grow in our hearts
You were the grace that placed itself
Where lives were torn apart

Goodbye England's rose
From a country lost without your soul
Who'll miss the wings of your compassion
More than you'll ever know

Refrain

This is Camden:

The first thing we saw was the big market:

Camden Town is an area of North London, England, in the London Borough of Camden. Camden Town is sometimes referred to simply as "Camden", but it should not be confused with the borough.

It is also an area with a large congregation of people following alternative subcultures, most notably goth, punk and emo.

Ben Mitchell (singer/songwriter) lived and performed in Camden while writing and recording The Stars Can See.

It was in Camden where Mitchell also started and hosted Acoustic Trip (at The Lock Tavern then Caenarvon Castle.)

Now our tour was almost finished. We returned to the city center and we stopped in the Vigo Street. On the pictures below we see the place where the Beatles performed together live for the last time.

On January 30, 1969, the Beatles gave their last public performance from the rooftop of the Apple Corp. office building in London, England. The unannounced and impromptu live appearance was cut short when the police pulled the plug on the performance.

Rooftop of the Apple Corp

Just a few miles from the Vigo Street away there were shown lots of musicals, which I found very fascinating.

Mary Poppins

Chim Chim Cheree

Performed by: Bert (Dick Van Dyke)

Written by: Richard M. Sherman and Robert B. Sherman

Chim chiminey
Chim chiminey
Chim chim cher-ee!
A sweep is as lucky
As lucky can be

Chim chiminey
Chim chiminey
Chim chim cher-oo!
Good luck will rub off when
I shake 'ands with you
Or blow me a kiss
And that's lucky too

Now as the ladder of life
'As been strung
You may think a sweep's
On the bottommost rung

Though I spends me time
In the ashes and soot
In this 'ole wide world
There's no 'appier bloke

Up where the smoke is
All billered and curled
'Tween pavement and stars
Is the chimney sweep world

When the's 'ardly no day
Nor 'ardly no night
There's things 'alf in shadow
And 'alf way in light
On the roof tops of London
Coo, what a sight!

I choose me bristles with pride
Yes, I do
A broom for the shaft
And a broom for the flume

Though I'm covered with soot
From me 'ead to me toes
A sweep knows 'e's welcome    Wherever 'e goes

Chim chiminey
Chim chiminey
Chim chim cher-ee!
When you're with a sweep
You're in glad company

No where is there
A more 'appier crew
Than them wot sings
"Chim chim cher-ee
Chim cher-oo!"
On the chim chiminey
Chim chim cher-ee
Chim cher-oo!

Let's Go Fly a Kite

Written by: Richard M. Sherman and Robert B. Sherman

*L*et's go fly a kite
Up to the highest height
Let's go fly a kite
And send it soaring

Up through the atmosphere
Up where the air is clear
Oh, let's go fly a kite
Let's go fly a kite!
